Dear Gary D. Smith/Kate Kolstad:

Re: Alberta Export Awards 2010

CME – Alberta and the Alberta Government congratulate you and thank you for your application to the 2010 Alberta Export Awards. We know how much effort you put into your application and more importantly into the development of your export business.

Canadian Manufacturers & Exporters and all of our partners and committee members for this year's event work with Alberta businesses to assist them in their market development and exports to countries throughout the globe. Our organization has many dedicated people, with extensive expertise in the many facets of developing export relationship with your global customers and assuring that your valuable products arrive at your destination, and you are paid for your products and services.

Our adjudicating committee has reviewed all of our applications and selected our Finalists for the Alberta Export Awards 2010 to be held at The Westin, Calgary on Friday, November 26, 2010. The Gala Luncheon registration can be found on our Web Site www.albertaexportawards.com.

We are pleased to confirm that your company has been selected as a Finalist in Professional & Services category! Congratulations to you and your team!!! The awards committee is pleased to advise that your company already has two spots at the reception held for the finalists, and two tickets for the Gala Lunch (complimentary – at no cost). We encourage you to upgrade and purchase a full table of 8 for this years Export Awards luncheon. Then, your corporate team will be there to celebrate with you, as you wait for the announcement of the winner in your category. It will be much more enjoyable and fun as you all celebrate exporting in Alberta.
